

OFFICERS OF THE ATLANTA CHAPTER OF THE IUGB ALUMNI NETWORK

Lauritz KOUADIO

Chairwoman

MBA, December 2013, GSU Atlanta, GA

Lauritz is a high-performing, early career professional who is currently earning her MBA at Georgia State University while working full time. Passionate about the financial market, Lauritz graduated Magna Cum Laude in May 2010 from Georgia State University with a BBA in finance. She is currently working as an accounting assistant for Lanier Parking Management in downtown, Atlanta. Lauritz always strives for excellence in all her endeavors and is committed to make a difference in people's lives by all possible means. She held various leadership roles in the past. In her spare time, Lauritz loves to cook, read and watch movies. She also volunteers with different organizations.

Kido Jean Jacques Kouadio KOUASSI

Vice-chairman

BS. Computer Information System

After earning a Diploma in Computer Science from Ghana, Kido Kouassi attended the International University of Grand Bassam with a major in Computer Information System. He transferred to Georgia State University where he graduated Magna Cum Laude. Kido is currently working for Nuesoft Technologies as an IT Administrator.

Before moving to the United States, He interned at Orange Cote d'Ivoire. He also worked as a Research Assistant at the International University of Grand Bassam. Naturally caring and friendly, he loves holding leadership roles. Indeed, he was one of the founders of WINDAY, an initiative to help people in need in Grand Bassam, Cote d'Ivoire. Kido is passionate about computers. His biggest dream is to eradicate poverty in Cote d'Ivoire, his homeland. In his spare time, He loves playing all sports. Moreover, He likes reading and playing games. His motto is "keep it simple stupid"

OFFICERS OF THE ATLANTA CHAPTER OF THE IUGB ALUMNI NETWORK

Michelle ALLADE

Board Secretary

MS. Mathematical Risk management, December 2013, Georgia State University, Atlanta, GA

Michelle is currently enrolled in a graduate program that emphasizes advanced mathematics, statistics, and econometrics in order to quantify, model, and manage financial risks. While enrolled full-time, she works for an insurance company as a research analyst. In addition, she is a candidate of the CFA Level I exam and wants to work as a financial risk manager after completion of her degree.

Michelle obtained her high school degree with Honors in 2006 and entered IUGB in the same year. She spent two years in IUGB before transferring to GSU in 2008. During her time at IUGB, she was involved in the SGA as a treasurer and actively participated in all campus activities. In December 2010, she graduated Magma cum Laude from GSU with a BBA in finance and business Economics.

Michelle has a great personality and loves to share her experience with others. She enjoys social gatherings, great books and paintings. Her favorite quote: "The optimist sees a possibility in every problem; a pessimist sees a problem in every possibility".

Corinne KONAN BROU

Board Treasurer

BS. International Economics, December 2011, GSU, Atlanta, GA

After completion of a scientific high school degree, Corinne was one of the youngest students to attend IUGB in 2005. She was very involved on campus and held various leadership positions at the university. In 2007, she was the treasurer of the IUGB's Student Government Association. The following year, she was elected production manager of the IUGB's Junior Achievement group, as well as director of the school's newspaper. In her community, Corinne volunteered for the Foundation Raoul Folleraux in Abidjan, and participated in different fundraising activities for her church.

Friendly, professional and efficient, Corinne has a great personality and is also willing to help others. In 2009, she transferred to Georgia State University and obtained a Bachelor in International Economics and Modern languages. She is also currently interning with a Tax company in Atlanta.

OFFICERS OF THE ATLANTA CHAPTER OF THE IUGB ALUMNI NETWORK

Junior KOFFI NANAN

Public Relation and Communication Director

BS Economics, Minor in mathematics, December 2011, GSU Atlanta, GA

Koffi Nanan N'goran Koffi S. Junior passed his brevet in 2004 and graduated from high school in 2007 after obtaining of a scientific baccalaureate. Junior then attended the International University of Grand Bassam (IUGB) in September 2007 to work toward his bachelor's degree. Junior was very involved on campus at IUGB. He was the Website designer of E-doo, a web design venture created by some IUGB students. He was also an executive leader in the Student Government Association, in charge of the student life committee for the academic year 2008-2009. In December 2009, Junior enrolled at Georgia State University and started in the spring 2010 at Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. He graduated with a Bachelor of Sciences in Economics and a minor in Mathematics in December 2011. Junior is currently interning at the Continuous Quality Improvement department of Families First, a non-profit organization based in Atlanta.